Beldar Associates Internet Service

Terms and Conditions

- 1) Beldar Associates has no control over, nor responsibility for, the content of the information subscribers receive from the Internet or any other service it provides.
- 2) Beldar Associates makes no warranties of any kind, whether expressed or implied, for the service it provides. Beldar Associates also disclaims any warranty of salability or appropriateness for a particular purpose. Beldar Associates will not be responsible for any damage you suffer; this includes loss of data resulting from delays, non-deliveries, misdeliveries or service interruptions caused by a customer's negligence and/or errors. Beldar Associates is not liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations due to any cause beyond its control, including, without limitations, fire, accident, war, sabotage, acts of God or there force majeure.
- 3) The services Beldar Associates provides may only be used for lawful purposes. Transmission of any material in violation of any Federal, state or local regulations is prohibited. This includes, but is not limited to: copyrighted materials, including software, material provided by the Clarinet, AP and Reuters news services; material legally judged to be threatening or obscene, or material protected by trade secret. You agree to indemnify and hold harmless Beldar Associates from any claims resulting from your use of service which damages you or another party. Customers found violating the law will have their accounts terminated immediately and forwarded to the proper authorities.
- 4) Any access to other networks through Beldar Associates must comply with the rules appropriate for that other network.
- 5) Beldar Associates will not be responsible for any telephone company charges incurred by you as a result of dialing our Internet service in a local, in a long-distance, or in any other manner.
- 6) Use of any information obtained via Beldar Associates is at your own risk. Beldar Associates specifically denies any responsibility for the accuracy or quality of information obtained through its services.
- 7) All invoicing is executed via U.S. Mail. Payment is due upon receipt of invoice. Accounts are in default if payment is not received within 25 days after the due date of invoice. If your payment is returned to us unpaid, you are immediately in default and subject to returned check charges of $25.00 from Beldar Associates. Accounts determined to be in default will have their service interrupted. Such interruption does not relieve you from the obligation to pay the hourly, monthly or annual account charges.
- 8) Accounts in default are subject to current reconnection fees. If you default, you agree to pay Beldar Associates its reasonable expenses, including attorney and collection agency fees incurred in enforcing its rights under these Terms and Conditions. Accounts that are more than 30 days in default will be forwarded to the proper collection agency for collection proceedings.
- 9) Service will be invoiced on a quarterly, semi-annual, or annual basis. Only a written request to terminate your service relieves you of your obligation to pay the periodic account charge; however, you will not receive a refund for any remaining time for the month in which service is terminated. Set-up charges are non-refundable. Beldar Associates reserves the right to change rates and otherwise modify these Terms and Conditions by notifying you in advance of the effective date of the change. Early cancellation of 6month or 1year contracts will result in a 50% penalty fee being assessed to each account at the time refund is given.
- 10) Use of any Beldar Associates accounts or services constitutes acceptance of these Terms and Conditions.
